LITTLE GIRL IS ASSAULTED BY A FOREIGNER

Frances Wright, a twelve year old colored girl who resides along the new road beyond East Monessen was attacked about dusk last night while on her way home, at a point near the Shepler school house, by a foreigner whose name could not be learned.

The child was hurrying along the roadway when the man jumped from a clump of bushes and stopping the girl held a knife over her head and told her he would kill her if she made any outcry.

At first the child, frightened almost to death, refrained from giving an alarm and struggled with all her strength to ward off her assailant's advances, until she found she was unable to maintain her fight for her honor, she gave one loud, quick scream for help which was heard by two ladies nearby who ran to the little girl's aid. The man, seeing he was about to be trapped, ran and disappeared in the darkness. He attempted a criminal assault, but help arrived just in time to prevent the accomplishment of the purpose. The girl was taken to the office of a local physician, whose opinion was that the attempted assault had not been successful. The girl says she knows her assailant and could identify him. He has not as yet been apprehended. The girl is a daughter of William Wright who is employed on the John Irons place at Gibsonton. It is thought that had not help arrived when it did, this might have proven a second Annie Hertnick case.

Mrs. Perry and daughter, Rose in company with Cash Murphy, all three colored were arrested early Sunday morning on a charge of running a disorderly house. The hearing was held yesterday and the three inmates were fined $8 each.

EQUIPMENT HERE TO START ON VIADUCT

Yesterday a special train brought in the machines, falsework and other paraphernalia which is to be used by the Nicola Construction Co., in the building of the viaduct connecting Reed avenue over Third street hollow. The work of unloading was begun immediately and the cars will soon be emptied and Third street will present a busy scene.

Work is to begin immediately and according to the contract signed is to be completed within 150 working days. With good weather and an even break of luck such as a minimum of accidents and no holdup on materials it is expected that the viaduct will be finished and ready for travel well within the time specified.

STAR'S FINE VAUDEVILLE PLEASED LARGE HOUSES

People seemed to be again strictly at home at the Star theatre last night, with vaudeville again on tap. Joseph Hanley & Co. two people playing four distinct characters—were very pleasing to two large audiences. The title of the play is "After Ten Years" and it is a very pretty yet pathetic little life story, portraying what may, and what does very often happen in one's lives during the turn of a few years. The story is very cleverly acted out, the characters, true to live with considerable strength, being very naturally portrayed and the necessary changes made with seeming impossible quickness. Stayman & Haydn, "The Dutchman and the Coon" have a musical and comedy act at once taking, and they kept their hearers in an uproar of laughter. They are exceptionally fine. Hilda Peterson, the Swedish violinist has a novel act which pleases all. She is very clever in her role.

The moving pictures are as good as usual and the show for the early part of the week is strong. There'll be only one performance tonight—8 until 9:30. At 9:45 the Riverside Athletic Association will have the house for an exhibition. Wednesday evening two strong vaudeville shows as usual.

The members of the McShaffrey's summer stock company are today beginning the rehearsal of McKee Rankin's masterpiece, "The Golden Giant Mine," which will be the opening play for next Monday night. The best people from the strong city stock organizations have been engaged, and some of the Knicker bocker favorites were retained, and under the direction of Will F. McNulty, one of the best theatrical men in the business, the people of Monessen can be sure of a treat on next Monday evening, the opening of the summer season of the McShaffrey Stock Company.

CHURCH LEAGUE OPENS AT THE PAGE PARK THIS EVENING --M. E'S VS. PRESBYTERIANS

All is in readiness for the opening of the Church League race for the season of 1912. A final meeting of the Executive Board was held last evening in the office of the Motz Lumber Co. and the player's lists approved. After June 1, the number of players that each team can carry will be cut down to twenty. Any player who was a member of any team in the Church League from out of town last year is eligible again this year for the same team. No other out of town players however are eligible. A silver loving cup has been offered by Philip Brenner to the winner of the 1912 championship race and the Board accepted the award and expressed their thanks to the donor. The cup is a handsome trophy and is to be suitably engraved with the name of the champions.

A band has been engaged for this evening and several automobiles will be used in a short parade around the town preceeding the game. Much interest is prevalent now over the outcome of the opening battle. The Methodists although in last place at the close of last season's race have been materially strengthened with several crack players and they are confident of coming out ahead. The Presbyterians under the management of Dallas McCabe are saying very little, the same as was the case last year but with a knowing wink the wily little manager says, wait'til after the game."

C. F. Mentzer and Walker & Johnston, two of the local sporting goods dealers have offered the best bat in their store to the first player to make a circuit clout. This evenings game is scheduled to begin at 6:30 or as much before that as the contest can be conveniently started owing to the parade. It will last 7 innings if possible, or until called because of darkness. The grounds have been put in good shape following the heavy rainfall of the past few days. No admission will be charged to the games, a voluntary contribution however will be taken up during each game and it is the wish of the people in charge to secure as large a collection as possible this evening in order to help defray the expenses which will amount up to quite a large sum. Chief of Umpires William Riley will be in charge of play this evening and the probable line-up and batting order of the teams will be as follows:

Methodist	Presbyterian
Steckman 2b, Capt.	Watt p
Ferren c	Bumbaugh rf
Derby lf	Shupe 3b, Capt.
Johnson p	Underwood c
Davies 3b	O'neill lf

CALLAHAN OF CHARLEROI SAYS IT'S HE OR BRYAN

Edward Callihan, the well known Washington county politician opened his presidential campaign at Brownsville last Saturday with flags unfurled and banners waving and his enthusiastic talks were heard by many. He says he will open his campaign in Charleroi tomorrow, Wednesday with oratory and logic equal to that of Shakespeare, Lord Byron, Tennyson and the lesser lights (?) of the present day, such as Roosevelt, Taft and others.

The Honorable Edward says he and Bryan are the only two logical candidates for the Democratc nomination for the Presidency, and no matter which the party chooses, the Democracy will have a standard bearer of equal strength and popularity.

UNKNOWN DROPS GOOD CHECK IN COLLECTION

While the collection was being taken in a city Lutheran church Sunday morning, a member causually dropped in an envelope that was apparently no different from other envelopes that lined the basket. When this particular envelope was torn open by the church officers, out fell a certified check for $10,000. The pastor knows the donor, but was pledged to secrecy. The collection of the remainder of the congregation was $2,000.

UNUSUAL CHARACTER HELD IN MONESSEN

Thomas McGill a young man about 23 years old and who says his home is in Pittsburgh is being held at the jail pending an investigation of his case which is one of the most peculiar that has ever come to the attention of local officials. McGill was at one time employed here and about four years ago returned to Pittsburgh. Lately he has been addicted to drinking owing to the fact he has been unable to secure employment and it made him despondent. He was picked up on the streets here on Saturday while in a pitiful state. He was trying to get out of the way of snakes which he said had been after him everywhere he went. He was pretty low last evening but the doctors finally pulled him through and an effort is being made to locate his family in order that they may take charge of him.

BIG SPORTING EVENT ON AT STAR THIS EVENING

This evening in the Star theatre, what promises to be one of the premier athletic events of the year will be held under the auspices of the Riverside Athletic Club. An attractive program of wrestling and boxing bouts has been arranged and a performance of more than ordinary merit is assured by the boys under whose auspices the affair is staged. The show will commence at 9:45 just after the first vaudeville performance in the theatre.

The main attraction of the evening will be Cora Livingston, the champion lady wrestler, in a match with May Kelly of Johnstown. These two girls are in themselves an attraction well worth the price of admission. Also Paul Bowser, middle weight champion will wrestle with Young Gotch of Cleveland. Bowser is one of the best mat artists in this section and his appearance this evening is being looked forward to with great eagerness on the part of his many admirers. "Brownie" O'toole will hook up in a six round bout with "Young" Peters of Charleroi and "Young" Martin will fight six rounds with "Kid" Sailor. Both of the latter are local lads. Tickets are on sale at the box office and are going fast although there are still some good seats left.

A FIRE PROOF COMMISSION STORE-HOUSE

Plans for a new four-story brick, storage and warehouse to be erected at the corner of Donner avenue and Eighth street have been approved, and J. A. Lohman, the architect informs us that everything is in readiness to receive bids and push right along with the work as rapidly as possible.

This building is being erected for R. F. Dulaney of McKeespport and will be fire proof. Mr. Dulaney is a well known wholesale produce and commission dealer, having a large distributing business in McKeesport, and with the erection of this immense building Monessen will be made a distributing point for this section of the valley.

A siding will be run into the building by the P. & L. E. railroad company so that goods can be easily and quickly unloaded and re-loaded from the storage rooms for distribution to all valley points.

This will be one of the largest and best managed commission houses outside the city. Architect Lohman informs us that the aim is to get work on the foundation started at the earliest possible moment.

Murderer Held by a Lone Man

John Harris, aged 30 years, colored, of Isabella, a mining town in Fayette county, was arrested near Deemston Saturday morning after being held prisoner at the point of a double-barreled shotgun for over an hour by L. V. Martindell. Harris is said to be wanted in Isabella for shooting and killing Frank Jones, also colored, in a quarrel Saturday night, over Jones' wife. Martindell kept him covered until the officers arrived who placed him under arrest. Mr. Martindell is a well known and prosperous farmer of Washington county, and is personally known by quite a number of Monessen's best business people.

Smith Corwin of Weirton, W. Va., returned yesterday after a visit here with relatives.

That the old soldiers—what is left of them stand a pretty good show of getting what is due them at this time, in their hours of old age when they most need it, is attested by the fact that the House has agreed on a general pension bill, 173 to 57, providing pensions up to a dollar a day for all Civil or Mexican War Veterans. It then went to President Taft to affix his signature which he at once did. This bill, made a law will require $30,000,000, more to meet the demand made, but why not—what better way could the money stored in the vaults of the Government be used or put into circulation than by distributing it out to the old soldiers of our land? They served their country at a time when their services were needed. They suffered all manner of hardships and exposure left home and family and faced death in the most cruel form. Those who came back were broken in health, and it matters not, if they were never in or never saw a battle, they were there ready for duty, and the sacrifice and strain was just as great. And now that age to a great degree has bowed their heads and slackened their steps, it is just and right that they should, as far as can be, be repaid or generally recognized for the great sacrifice made and service rendered the country in those dark and terrible days.

Last Friday morning Mrs. J. E. Shields, wife of Commissioner Shields, visited the county jail at Greensburg and donated a large basket of beautiful flowers to the female prisoners. The donation was received with much pleasure and many thanks were extended to the giver. They were principally violets and lilacs with a few other varieties. This presents a most striking and pathetic picture. The woman, bowed in grief, her own husband being just about to step across the prison threshold, shows her love for the unfortunates by remembering them in the face of her own burden. Surely the hearts of Westmoreland county's good people should go out to this woman in sympathy, if nothing more, in this her hour of great trial and darkness.

Cruelty to children often takes the form of softness and needless indulgence. Many a failure in life is due to the lack of determination upon the part of parents who wanted to be good to their offspring, but they were only cruel without the knowledge of it.

It is said that the price of coal will not be raised now until September 1st, just about the time people will begin to want a little coal There's nothing like doing the right thing at the right time, is there?

Things are not divided up right in this world, as sure as we live. Here's young Astor with more than a hundred million dollars, while lots of us have not even a million yet.

How to Get a Change.

When it is impossible to move a convalescent into different surroundings for the sake of a change, move the furniture and pictures of the room into different places. An invalid often tires of seeing the same pictures and ornaments in the same places week after week. Change the position of the furnishings, and it will seem almost like moving into another room.

His Real Friends.

"The people are trying to obtain a pardon for that man who was sent up for stealing a phonograph." "I suppose all his neighbors are signing his petition?" "Not at all. It is being signed by the neighbors of the people from whom he stole the phonograph."

Even in Those Days.

The children stood in awe before one of the museum mummies. At last the elder whispered to her father, "Why is the old woman wrapped up in bandages? Did she die of an accident?" Before he could reply the younger girl said, "Oh, yes! She must have been run over by a motor car. There's the number—'B. C. 1461.'"

The Rush of Business

"Oh, I never will get this Christmas list made out!" said the little stenographer, impatiently, as she hastily threw her notebook into a drawer and grabbed materials to answer the buzzer that was getting frantic. "This is the 'steenth time I've barely got it started when some one wants to write his friend that he enjoyed the dinner he took with him yesterday or wishes to inform some one whom he never saw and never will see that he received his valued favor—which he never even read through—but though he can do absolutely nothing for him he begs, most ardently, to remind him that—and so on! Huh! Talk about women gushing!"

The bookkeeper turned an appreciative countenance toward her and prepared to listen.

"Oh, buzz on!" she exclaimed crossly, as the summons became still more imperative. "I'm engaged for a while yet!" And she snapped a rubbed band across the buzzer to deaden the noise.

"Actually, there aren't ten letters a day that are absolutely necessary," she declared, "There's a lot of folderol, that passes back and forth, and gets filed as business, though it is simple waste of time and postage. When the men receive the letters they realize what rubbish they are and laugh at them. But when they get started dictating they like the sound of their own voices!

"Why," and she gave her notebook an angry fling, "this thing here, I warrant, has about one page in ten filled with business that needed to be transacted! The rest is gush and affectation! And yet the men pride themselves on their quickness and their lack of red tape and their ability to cope with big situations. And you won't find one man in a dozen who doesn't make supercilious remarks about detail and say that he hasn't time to attend to that—that's what he keeps clerks for!

"I heard Mr. Brown this morning tell his wife over the 'phone that he simply couldn't get home to her luncheon, he was so busy—his desk was simply piled with work. He was very sorry, but business had to come before pleasure and she'd please make his excuses to the guests and so on—all that rot.

"Well, I expected a busy day when I heard that and so I prepared for rapid dictation. Well, what did I get? To one man he wrote that the matter was on his desk and as soon as he had time he'd look it over and write him in detail, which he begged leave to trust was satisfactory! And to another he wrote that business, as he very likely knew, wasn't what it might be, and therefore he wouldn't be able to go into the matter, but we might in some months' time—perhaps—with which he trusted he might sign himself very sincerely! And to another that he was in doubt as to the advisability of taking out such and such a paper, just at present, but after due consideration he would write him further, and he desired, with great gusto, to subscribe himself his obliged friend And so on through the whole list! Why, there wasn't a letter that couldn't have been done away with altogether, let alone being put off until after his wife's luncheon!

"But all those letters made him think he was a very busy man and I've no doubt that he thinks he's indispensable to the company!

"Some day I'm going to run off a lot of form letters, saying that I'm very sorry, but I haven't yet had time to look into the matter, but will write further when time permits. I think it makes the men feel good to tell people they are too busy to think. Perhaps it might be well for me to offer my services as thinker for them!

"They all know that they'll decide against whatever matter it is that keeps pending! It's a hypocritical attitude, to say the least. They pretend to themselves that they're busy. They pretend to the man to whom they write that the matter really interests them and that they're really going to discuss it, and think it over, when they know they aren't even going to look at it again! And they pretend to the company that they're doing business eight hours a day! And then they'll go home and pretend to their wives that they've had a hard day!

"Oh, I've known too much of them ever to marry one of them! Marriage is purely a confidence game, as I see it, and when you lose confidence—or start in without any—marriage is sure to be a failure!

"Yes, yes, I'm coming as fast as I can!" She moved toward the door. Then she turned a smiling countenance to the bookkeeper.

"Here," she said, good naturedly, "just remember that what I said was all hasty. Perhaps those men do a lot of pretending, but if you listen carefully you'll hear my own sweet voice telling Mr. Jacobs, in one more minute, how extremely sorry I am that I was delayed and that it was unavoidable! And, do you know, I'd be fearfully angry if they dared intimate to me that I didn't earn my salary or that I wasted a lot of valuable time just hearing myself talk!"

LODAL PEOPLE LOSE BY A BOLD JEWEL ROBBERY

A sensational jewel robbery, which occured in Pittsburgh last week with a local connection was t at at 1?6 Lincoln avenue, Edgewood, when the home of W H. Blackburn was entered on Wednesday afternoon during the absence of the family down town.

In the Blackburn home was a casket of jewels, heirlooms and the like that had been handed down fo many generations of the family and were almost priceless on account of their family connection. The case contained jewel studded brooches, watches, rings, ear rings, pendants, crescents, etc. and the robbers, who must have had some knowledge of the jewels' presence, took the casket intact

The jewels came directly into the Blackburn family a short time ago by the death of Mrs. H. S. Hubbel which occurred in March and according to the will a distribution was soon to have been made.

It develops that one of the heirs to the stolen jewels is John Spiegel of Charleroi, who is an engineer at the Pittsburgh Steel plant, Monessen and whose daughter Mrs. Robert Sargent resides at 529 Schoonmaker avenue. So far there has been no trace or clue gained as to the perpetrators of the robbery, although a close watch is being kept on pawn shops of the city for an appearance of some of the jewels. The value of these gems to the family would mount into many thousands of dollars, although the robbers could not realize anything like their real value in an exchange.

MRS. SCOTT'S SUFFERING OVER

Doctors Advised An Operation. How She Escaped Told By Herself.

Buckner, Mo.—"For more than a year I suffered agonies from female troubles and the doctors at last decided there was no help for me unless I went to the hospital for an operation. I was awfully against that operation, and as a last resort wrote to you for special advice and I told you just what I suffered with bearing down pains, backache, shooting pains in my left side, and at times I could not touch my foot to the floor without screaming. I was short of breath, had smothered spells, felt dull and draggy all the time. I could not do any work, and oh how I dreaded to have an operation.

"I received a letter full of kind advice, which I followed, and if I had only written her a year ago I would have been saved so much suffering, for today I am a well woman. I am now keeping house again and do every bit of my own work. Every one in this part of the country knows it was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that has restored me to health, and everywhere I go I recommend it to suffering women."—Mrs. LIZZIE SCOTT, Buckner, Mo.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. We have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years."

We ourselves vouch for the D.D.D. Prescription for eczema and absolutely guarantee that it will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

If you are suffering from any form of skin trouble we would like to have you come to our store, for we have had the agency of this remedy for so many years that we can tell you all about D.D.D. Prescription and how it cures eczema. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work. For that matter a trial bottle for 25c ought to be enough to absolutely prove the merits of the remedy.

Drop into our store anyway and we will tell you all about this great remedy,

THINGS ALL OUGHT TO KNOW

As Christian Bible Students—The Satisfactory Proof of "Why God Permits Evil."

One of the questions which comes to nearly every thinking mind today is, "Why does God permit evil?" As we look about us in the world we observe that it is filled with sorrow and trouble, sickness and pain and every trial we could enumerate, and we cannot help wondering WHY GOD ALLOWS IT. We realize that He is almighty and that He could prevent it if He wished We read in His Word that He is more willing to do for His children than are earthly parents for theirs, and we know how much that means; yet oftentimes, it seems that those who try to do and live right have the most trouble. This question is made very clear in a book entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages." Every statement is backed by Scripture, and shows that while God does not sanction evil HE HAS ALLOWED SIN AND DEATH TO REIGN FOR THESE LONG SIX THOUSAND YEARS. This and many other subjects of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension.

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna."

This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates.

An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.

"Men's hearts are failing them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present world-wide social, religious and political unrest.

As though by instinct the whole creation, while it groans and travails in pain together, waits for, longs for and hopes for the DAY, calling it the "GOLDEN AGE"; yet men grope blindly because not aware of the great Jehovah's gracious purposes. And to his wondering creatures, looking at the length and breadth, the height and depth of the love of God, surpassing all expectation, He explains: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord; for as the heavens are higher than the earth so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isa. 55.8, 9.

News Notes of Society

Mrs. Thomas J. Minehart entertained forty little friends of her daughter Sara, on Saturday, it being her 8th birthday anniversary. The house was prettily decorated in pink and white carnations. The same color being used in the refreshments. The favors were also pink and white carnations. Cora Jarrett played a march for the children to march to the dining room where delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Minehart was assisted by her sister Mrs. Leslie Campbell, Mrs. John Oehler and Miss Elizabeth Jarrett. The out of town guests were Mrs. Nellie Minehart of Belle Vernon, Mrs. Oscar Minehart and son Allen, Mrs. Leslie Campbell and daughters Dorothy and Jane of Charleroi, Mrs. Lester Zerbe and daughter Charlotte of Elrama. Mr. Minehart, the little hostess's father is well remembered by many Monessen people, he for years having been cheif telegrapher at the P. R. R. station at Lock Four or West Monessen.

A very pretty and most unique entertainment is being arranged by the members of the Baptist church for Tuesday evening, June 4th in the opera house. "George Washington Entertaining the Colonial Dames" is one of the prettiest renditions of "ye olden times" and the ones best fitted for each character is being chosen and already rehearsals are going on and everything indicates that this will be one of the highest classed and most elaborately staged home production ever attempted in this part of the valley. A professional theatrical personage has been engaged to direct, instruct and rehearse the parts and the portrayal will be absolutely true to life. The costuming will be correct and nothing will be overlooked that would tend toward making the entertainment a success. So let everybody remember this and make no other engagement for the evening of June fourth.

OLYMPIC

Tuesday, May 14—The thrilling European sensation, "Cell No. 12," Martha, the wife, meets Marks, deceives her husband, and after many escapades or wrong doings she is found out by the husband. These, along with another, and the daily American Press Association news makes up our program for today. Wednesday we'll have a program equally as good as today—Thursday we have "The Land of Darkness," surpasses all others, with other strong pictures.

They Deserve Medals

W. E. McFall, chief clerk in the postoffice at Charleroi, a short time ago plunged into the river at Allenport and at the risk of his life saved a child from drowning. Another act was the one performed at Dunlevy last week, when Ambrose Dooley, the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Dooley, jumped in the river and after a hard struggle brought Harry Sherry, an eight year old boy, to shore who was in the act of drowning.

It is a tribute to one of these heroes—W. E McFall—to know that the Hero Commission has investigated the case, and friends are hoping the same will be done in the Dooley case, as surely both are heroes in the truest sense, and are entitled to be awarded medals through the National Carnegie Commission.

Notice

Owing to the high cost of meat we will discontinue giving Silver trading stamps as we find it impossible to sell our meats at the same prices and help make stamp companie's rich. We also feel that it will be more satisfactory to our patrons knowing that when they buy meat of us there is no unnecessary expense added to it for stamps and premiums. Is it reasonable for a merchant to cut his profits in half and give part to a stamp company and still sell his goods at the same price? Hoping that this will be satisfactory to our patrons we stand ready at all times to supply our customers with a full line of home dressed meats which are the only kind to eat. We also carry all kinds of home made provisions which are guaranteed both as to quality and freshness.

LOCAL RAILROAD COMPANY LOOKING TO PATRONS SAFETY

Recent disasters, federal and state investigations and the criticism of experts and publicists, have goaded railroad companies all over the United States to extreme efforts to conserve the safety of their passengers.

In line with this national movement, the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad Company, in the Monongahela house in Pittsburgh yesterday, called the first meeting of the representatives of the different departments of the road. Over 25 men were assembled in the meeting room and had the motto, "Safety, Economy and Efficiency," drilled into them. From now on every one of the 8,000 employees from the heads of departments down will have this motto as their byword and every means and device for the safety of the traveling public will be considered., speed will come as a minor consideration.

Reports were received from several committees who were appointed at a preliminary meeting and all pointed out the absolute need of safety in every department in connection with the railroading and in some cases remedies were pointed out. A party of officials from this division were in attendance at the meeting including yardmaster C. C. Sullivan, from Monessen

Professional Bomb Throwers.

The Chinese corps of trained bomb throwers reminds us that our own regiment of Grenadier guards takes its name from the grenades or small bombs which in early days they hurled at the enemy in an assault. And this primitive duty is also commemorated in a flaming grenade embroidered on the collars of their tunics.—London Chronicle.

'Tis the statement of a Monessen citizen.

Mrs. M. W. Cheesebrough, 941 Donner avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family with excellent results in cases of kidney troube. Last spring I was suffering from pain in my back and a weakness of the kidney. I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time they completely cured me. This remedy is worthy of all the praise given it."
